WELCOME

Dear Show Visitors,

We are delighted to welcome you to the Royal Windsor Flower Show, the biggest annual event of the Royal Windsor Rose & Horticultural Society. Our aim is to bring together a community of like-minded people who are as passionate as we are about life's simple pleasures, namely gardening, nature, cooking, making things and traditional crafts. We feel it's more important than ever for individuals, families and especially children to get away from those highly addictive screens and spend time having fun outdoors among friends.

You'll find a spectacular lineup this year, including the quintessentially British Competitions' Marquee, the dedicated Children's Area, the Craft Marquee, Talks Theatre with a host of fascinating speakers, Artisan shopping and the Plant Hub featuring top-notch British nurseries. Around the showground you'll also find inspiring plant displays from exceptional designers, lots of great entertainment for all ages and tasty food and drink!

Britain's best loved gardener, writer and tv presenter Alan Titchmarsh, the Honorary President of the RWRHS, will be joining us along with a raft of other remarkable talent from the worlds of gardening, cookery and craft, and we are particularly pleased to announce that HRH The Duchess of Edinburgh will be attending the show. A big thank you to our Show Ambassadors – Angellica Bell, Daisy Payne, Nick Knowles, Mark Gregory, Giancarlo & Katie Caldesi – for all their support.

Our aim is for the day to be full of inspiration, insights and fun, so make sure to read this Guide to ensure that you enjoy as much of it as possible.

WHAT'S ON

For GARDENERS

Plant Hub, Show Gardens, Displays, Master Gardeners and the Talks Theatre

We have created a vibrant and dynamic Plant Hub where visitors can buy plants and talk with brilliant growers from fine British Nurseries (listed below). This area will be hosted by Chris Collins, Head of Organic Horticulture at Garden Organic and former BBC Blue Peter gardener. Chris will host a series of talks and demonstrations by the growers so this is a great area to return to as the day unfolds. Talks/demonstrations will last around 15-20mins. They start at 10:45am and run hourly throughout the day until 4:45pm. Listen out for the bell announcing start times.

Designer Alan Williams of multi-award winning Landform Consultants, has created a tribute to King Charles III in the form of a maze, while six exceptional professional gardeners have created stunning displays on vintage plantsman's trolleys for our Master Gardeners' Competition supported by Villaggio Verde. Look out for the work of Lush Garden Co, Jamie Butterworth's display for the Good Grief Trust, florist Lavender Green and talented gardening duo Mat Reese and Aaron Bertelsen. You can also enjoy 'Question Time for Gardeners', as well as a talk from the great Alan Titchmarsh. You'll also find Little Muddy Boots in the Children's Area where you can take part in some fun educational activities and find some delightful wheelbarrow displays around the showground created by talented local school children.

LMB=Little Muddy Boots*

The Royal Windsor Flower Show raises funds for the Royal Windsor Rose & Horticultural Society whose purpose is to create, deliver and support charitable projects in our local community.

This year we are thrilled to say that we engaged over 650 children through our school gardening and craft initiative delivered by local company Little Muddy Boots and partner charity Busy Buttons CORE. The RWRHS has also delivered a horticultural residential course for Centrepont Young People in April 2023.

A sincere thank you to our wonderful sponsors, supporters, volunteers and all our visitors for working alongside us.
We couldn't do it without you!
